New York City

Dear Sir:

The proposition of your working here on Saturdays, was brought before our Board of Trustees at its meetings on Friday. Before making any definite statements, would you be kind enough to furnish us with references,-as many as is possible. You appreciate, of course, that we are desirous of having all possible information concerning anybody who may have access to our things. I will not be here next Saturday, will you therefore be so good as to communicate with me by mail.

Yours very truly,

Curator.
